

Evangel Hall Mission

A community of compassion. A place of hope.

- Son of a Trickster - Eden Robinson
 - A captivating coming-of-age story that blends Indigenous mythology with gritty realism, following the turbulent life of a young First Nations teenager navigating family troubles, supernatural encounters, and personal growth.
- Split Tooth - Tanya Tagaq
 - A mesmerizing blend of memoir and fiction, infused with poetic language and Inuit mythology, as it recounts the haunting and raw journey of a young girl in Canada's Arctic searching for identity and resilience.
- Four Faces of the Moon - Amanda Strong
 - A visually stunning and emotionally powerful graphic novel that weaves together personal narratives, Indigenous history, and resilience, highlighting the enduring spirit of Indigenous women
